Parenting

Matthew 11:28-30

You are doing _____ than you think.

Matthew 11:28–30: “Come to me, all you who are weary and burdened, and I will give you rest. Take my yoke upon you and learn from me, for I am gentle and humble in heart, and you will find rest for your souls. For my yoke is easy and my burden is light.”

“Come to me, all you who are weary and burdened, and I will give you rest.”

Jesus doesn't shame the _____ — He _____ them.

Rest for your soul ≠ _____. It means knowing you're _____.

“Take my yoke upon you and learn from me, for I am gentle and humble in heart...”

Raise your kids by His example — with _____ and _____.

Discipline isn't _____ — it's _____.

The long game of parenting: shaping the _____, not just the behavior.

“...and you will find rest for your souls. For my yoke is easy and my burden is light.”

We don't find rest by escaping the chaos — we find it by building rhythms of grace within it.

Our habits _____ our _____.

Our _____ of the home should reflect our _____.

Embracing _____ Over _____

Romans 5:20 – “Where sin increased, grace increased all the more.”

_____ God in the _____ Seasons

Proverbs 3:5 – “Trust in the Lord with all your heart and lean not on your own understanding.”

Jesus sees you. He invites you to come to Him—not when you're rested, but because you're weary.
